

Give Me More

When I was much younger than today, I was chasing fame and I had good time
And I called it fun... well, anyway - not anymore

But when I looked in the mirro, I got scared, cause I didn't know - who
Who is this person who`s staring back at me

*Had some good times, though I said some bad bad rhymes
But I never ever felt so much love from anyone but you,
So won't you:*

Tonight give me more, more your love,
Bab`, give me more, more your love
Tonight, would you please - give me more your love

I do realize that you love me already
Otherwise I would stay in that room #48
I don't need another proof that you love me, `Coz I feel that you do
I feel nice and I feel good inside, That I have you in my life
I'm opening my heart for you and I wanna feel you more, That`s why:

Tonight give me more, more your love,
Bab`, give me more, more your love
Tonight, would you please - give me more your love

*Had some good times, though I said some bad bad rhymes
But now I feel so good inside
That I have you in my life*

Tonight give me more, more your love,
Bab`, give me more, more your love
Tonight, would you please - give me more your love
