

That`s All I Want You To Know

There`s noone who lives forever
That`s something everybody knows
So, if I should die in this very day
Please lissten, `coz now my heart has something to say.

You loved me more than I ever deared to dream
You brought me back to world of joy
You held me like noone ever will do
You are the miracle, my dream which came true

So, here I am - looking in your eyes
Those same eyes - I fell in love with
I`m telling you the truth, before my life is thru
I love you - that`s all I want you to know.

*Please don`t cry, please stop those tears now
There is some place we will meet again
If not soon, then indeed - someday
Oh, God, I`m begging you - let this someday be soon*

So, here I am - looking in your eyes
Those same eyes - I fell in love with
I`m telling you the truth, before my life is thru
I love you - that`s all I want you to know.
