

In Your Arms

Once in a while I felt dismissed, rejected by, refused by someone else
They`re intrested in some business cards, or worse - my credit cards
But now something has changed:

*I found the love that noone can take that away
There`s someone who needs real me
I finally found someone who needs me, who loves me the way I am*

Baby, baby, hold me tight
`Cause never ever felt so safe as in your arms, in your arms

How many nights I`ve cried in my pillow
Waiting for someone to come on my way
Sometimes it was hard to believe in pure relationship
But now something has changed:

*I`ve found the strenght I thought I will never know
There is you who is giving me support
I finally found someone who needs me, who loves me forever*

Baby, baby, hold me tight
`Cause never ever felt so safe as in your arms, in your arms

Baby you`re my guiding light - noone could ever take your place
Baby you`re my guiding light - you are the one that I need

Baby, baby, hold me tight
`Cause never ever felt so safe as in your arms, in your arms
