

Everything`s Gonna Be Just Fine

Once in a while we`ve all been dismissed Because that we`ve been misunderstood But this voice inside you keeps whisperin` in Right in to your heart

(that) everything`s gonna be alright
everything`s gonna be ok
everything`s gonna be just fine

Step by step you will guide yourself there On and on, just keep holding on With the strenght of yours you will pass it thru
All the angels are, they are by your side

(that) everything`s gonna be alright
everything`s gonna be ok
everything`s gonna be just fine
